Hervey Named Summit League Defensive Player of Week

Senior receives first POW honor of her career

Nov. 3, 2008

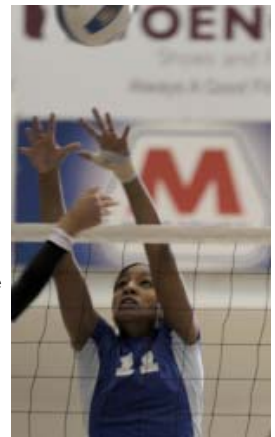

Elmhurst, IL – IPFW senior middle hitter Kylee Hervey has been named The Summit League Defensive Player of the Week for her efforts against Oral Roberts and Centenary, both 3-0 victories for the Mastodons.

Against Oral Roberts, IPFW's first-ever victory against the Golden Eagles, she had three kills and seven blocks (two solo). She matched her block total the next night with another seven blocks, with six of them coming via a combination block, while adding a half-dozen kills.

Hervey is the conference leader in kills during the Summit League season, averaging 1.30 blocks per set, as she is currently second on the squad with 66. With at least five more matches on the schedule, her block total has her with the sixth highest senior-year total in school history, and is a dozen away from moving into fourth place in the category.

Hervey joins three other players, Jamie Schwartz, Rebekah Roehm and Taryn Parker, who have each been named Player of the Week this season, Schwartz (defensive) and Roehm (offensive) on September 22, and Parker (defensive) last week.

IPFW, now 14-11 on the season, travel to North and South Dakota for a pair of Summit League matches over the weekend, facing off against the Bison of North Dakota State with an 8:00 PM first-serve on Friday, November 7, before moving south to take on the Jackrabbits of South Dakota State on Saturday the 8th, also with a first-serve of 8:00 PM Eastern Time.

Hervey becomes fourth Mastodon player to earn Player of the Week honors this season
